

CareerCasts

Careers in high fidelity.

The Pittsburgh Technology Council presents CareerCasts... the link between regional employers and job seekers. CareerCasts are recorded, interactive interviews with southwestern Pennsylvania's top tech companies and HR professionals discussing unique aspects of their business and operations. Audio interviews using Pittsburgh-based TalkShoe technology provide on-the-go availability to job seekers and a high-tech tool for employee recruitment and retention. All Casts are archived for easy access, so be sure to visit the CareerCast site often.

CASTING FOR A NEW JOB?

How does a new job sound? It definitely sounds better with the Pittsburgh Technology Council's CareerCasts. These interactive podcasts give valuable insight into some of southwestern Pennsylvania's top companies in less than the time it takes to get lunch. Hear directly from the mouths of HR professionals, as they discuss the work climate, their business, current positions available and the ability for career growth within their company. CareerCasts go beyond the job description and provide you the knowledge to decide which company is right for you.

Casting starts 02.11.08.
